Whoa. You’ve just arrived to the U and already there’s talk about graduation?! Although that may seem a bit far in the future, it’s an excellent idea to keep that goal always in mind. No need to stress… DARS will help you all along the way! DARS are advising tools which allow you to track your academic progress toward graduation by showing how the classes you’ve taken apply to majors, minors, certificates, and University graduation requirements.

Why DARS are awesome and why you need to pay attention:

What’s completed:

What’s in-progress:

What you still need:

How to Run a DARS:

START HERE!

2. In the Graduation Box, click “Generate Degree Audit Reports”.
3. Use the drop down menus in the to select the report you want to use.
4. Click “Submit.” You’ll get a message that says your DARS has been requested.
5. Click “View your degree audit report” in the message box.
6. You may need to click “REFRESH/RELOAD” until the report appears.
7. Click “VIEW”. If you have questions, speak with your academic advisor.
8. Repeat whenever you need up to date information on your graduation.

What to do if your DARS doesn’t look right:

Missing AP credit? Curious about whether a transfer course will count for your major? Or general education? Use this table to find out who to talk to for different concerns.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Problem with:</th>
<th>Contact:</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>General Education &amp; Bachelor’s</td>
<td>University 801-581-8146 450 SSB</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Degree Requirements</td>
<td>College</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Major or Minor Requirements</td>
<td>See department contact list on page __</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Missing Test or Transfer Credit</td>
<td>Admissions 801-581-7281 250 S SSB</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>